

PhD Student Travel and Expense Stipends

Every year the Alliance for Research on Corporate Sustainability provides a stipend to accepted PhD students to assist with the expenses for traveling and attending the ARCS Conference. If you are interested in applying for a stipend, please submit the information below by April 26, 2019. Please send the information in a single PDF to this year's conference host, the University of North Carolina – Chapel Hill at arcs2019@kenan-flagler.unc.edu.

Please include:

- A 2-3 paragraph statement of purpose
- A breakdown of the expected overall costs as well as quotes for airfare and hotel accommodations

Please note, the amount of the stipend may or may not cover the total expenses needed to attend the conference. For information on hotel accommodations and travel, please visit the conference webpage. There is a reduced registration rate available for PhD students.

Stipends will be distributed in the form of reimbursements for the awarded amount post-conference.

Deadline to Submit a Stipend Request: April 26, 2019

Decision and Notification: May 1, 2019

For questions, please contact arcs2019@kenan-flagler.unc.edu.

We look forward to seeing you at the conference.

Thank you,

Alliance for Research on Corporate Sustainability
